The 2004 Murray Cuvee is packed with lots of ripe fruit with just a hint of chocolate and almond. It has an extremely smooth palate that just floats over your tongue and lingers in your mouth.

Hightower Cellars' motto and method is handpicked, handsorted and handmade. We ferment in small open-top containers no taller than they are wide to extract greater flavor and color by having more juice in contact with the grape skins. After gently pressing the wine from the skins the wine is aged in small oak barrels for twenty months. During barrel aging we use gravity to rack the wine off its lees. Separate lots were blended and bottled in the summer of 2006.
